Prompt paying non-union companies.A Constipation Remedy FreeThere is no action of your daily life of greater importance than to see that your bowels move. They should move at least once a day naturally, and by that is meant without any help.
If they do not move at least once a day you can consider yourself constipated and it is time you did something about it.You will be glad to know there is a way out of the difficulty. Lemuel Landerdale, an old soldier at Quincy, Ill., Elmer McMillan, of Speed, Mo., Mrs.
Monahan, of Stonewall, Miss., and many others were as you are now. But one day they awoke to the fact that Dr.
Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin was curing their friends, so they bought it too and it cured them. Today they are loud in praise of it.What Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin did for them it should do for you. Surely your constipation is no worse than theirs, one of whom had it since '61. It only remains for you to realize that salts are of but temporary good, and what you want is a permanent cure; that purgative tablets, cathartic pills and such violent things make a great show of doing something, but do nothing that is lasting. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a scientific preparation, a laxative- tonic, a mild syrupy liquid that contains ingredients that not only cure the constipation, but tone the intestinal muscles so that they learn again to work without help. A bottle can be bought of any druggist for the small price of 50 cents, and there is a dollar size for families who have already found out its wonderful value in stomach, liver and bowel troubles in old or young.Send your name and address to the doctor and a free trial bottle will be sent you so that you can test it before buying.If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service.The address is Dr. W. B.
Caldwell, 500 Caldwell bldg.,

Postpone Unveiling.

On account of the illness of Arthur Goebel, who is in the West with his brother, the unveiling of the monument of William Goebel will not be held until some time in June. It was expected that the statue would be unveiled in May, but it is desired to have Mr. Goebel present, and his health will not permit him to come to Frankfort this month. He hopes to be able to be there in June at the date to be fixed by the Goebel monument commission. Senator James B. McCreary, chairman of the commission, has sent word to Frankfort persons interested in the unveiling, that it will have to be postponed once more. The monument, which was erected by the people of the State, has not been veiled for some months, and is one of the interesting objects in the Frankfort cemetery.

Clock Made of Straw.

A shoemaker named Wegner, living in Strasburg, has a clock of the grandfather shape, nearly six feet high, made entirely of straw. The wheels, pointers, case and every detail are exclusively of straw. Wegner has taken 15 years to construct this strange piece of mechanism. It keeps perfect time.

Kills Her Foe of 20 Years.

"The most merciless enemy I had for twenty years," declares Mrs.
James Duncan, of Haynesville, Me., "was dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating and drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For indigestion, loss of appetite, kidney trouble, lame back, female complaints, it is unequalled.

HE GOT BIG PAY.

An African Salary That Commanded Respect and Obedience.Makuba and Oblanga were two Africans, the one the captain of a boat crew and the other subordinate to him.
Oblanga was an independent fellow, not in the least lazy, who rather resented "bossing." In a book entitled "The Jungle Folk of Africa" R. H.
Milligan tells of an altercation between the two men. Makuba, the diplomatic, came out of it with flying colors.The worst disputes between Makuba and Oblanga took place when they supposed that I was asleep. The native when he lies down anywhere sleeps immediately. Whenever I was lying in the bottom of the boat they always thought I was unconscious and that no conceivable noise could awaken me.Captain Makuba orders Oblanga to "haul away on the peak halyards," to which Oblanga promptly replies:

"Do it yourself."

"I won't do it; you will do it!" says Makuba in a threatening tone.

"Are you my father?" says Oblanga.

"No," answers Makuba, with infinite scorn. "How could a Kombi man be the father of a creature like you?""Then stop giving me orders!" says Oblanga, with rising wrath. "It is not the first time you have tried it, and one of these days you will find out that it won't do.""One of these days you will find out that I am captain of this boat and that you will have to obey me," says Makuba."Not as long as I carry a gun," answers Oblanga.By this time they are standing up and looking hard at each other. But Makuba would not think of striking a man in a mission boat. He therefore becomes diplomatic. Suddenly in a tone altogether different he says:"Oblanga, the trouble with you is that you are just a bushman. You don't know anything about civilization.On every big ocean steamer there is a captain, and every man on board, no matter what tribe he belongs to, obeys the captain."Oblanga becomes instantly curious and asks, "Is he rich?""Yes," says Makuba; "he gets big pay, and so do I get big pay."

"How much do you get, Makuba?"

"How much do you think?"

Oblanga thinks as well as he knows how, his countenance distorted with the effort, and at length answers reflectively, "Two dollars a month." He himself gets a dollar and a half.A broad smile engages Makuba's features as he slowly answers, "Five dollars a month."Oblanga gives expression to his surprise in a long, low whistle. It is quite evident to him that no ordinary person could command such wages, and in a tone of utmost complacency he says: "What was it you told me to do, Makuba? I forget.""I forget, too," says Makuba. "Oh, yes," he adds, "I told you to haul on the peak halyards."

Maryland Lotteries.

A Baltimore man interested in antiquarian research made a collection of old lottery tickets which gives interesting testimony as to the development of public morals. Most of the tickets were given out by Maryland lotteries, but quite as large a collection could undoubtedly be made in other states.
Four of the tickets are in the Washington monument lottery, which was authorized by the legislature and was not given up until 1824. As early as 1753 a lottery was advertised to build a wharf. The drawing took place April 30, 1754. Ten years later one was undertaken to build a market house in "Baltimore Town" and for "buying two fire engines and a parcel of leather buckets." In 1782 a yearly lottery was authorized to aid the city expenses. Other objects for which money was raised in this way were parsonages, church bells, circulating libraries and gristmills.

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Paris Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick.
Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, peal and foamy, or a thick red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's diseases. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here is proof in the statement of a nearby resident.Mrs. Mary Witzburger, W. Main street, Carlisle, Ky., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills very highly. My kidneys were out of order for years, causing my back to ache severely. There was a soreness through my hips and loins and I also had trouble from the kidney secretions, the passages being too frequent. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me prompt relief and might also add that another member of my family also used them for weak kidneys and was helped in a like manner. I am fully convinced that Doan's Kidney Pills are the best remedy to be had for kidney complaints."For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, States.Remember the name—Doan's—and

EGYPTIAN BARON

Is a black horse 15.2. A grand individual and one of the best representatives of the great Baron Wilkes, now known as the Futurity family. He is one of the fastest best headed horses in Kentucky, and has been a mile over my three-quarter track, which is at least three seconds slower than Lexington, in 2:09 1/4, last half in 1:03 1/4, last quarter in :30 1/4. Although a pacer, he was a natural and fast trotter, and could trot in 2:40 at 2 years old. Was raced a little last season for education, and proved himself a game, level headed race horse, and if he stays right, we predict a record of 2:05 or better this year. He has served a few mares, and his colts are good individuals and fast. Egyptian Baron will serve a few approved mares at $25 to insure a Living Foal.

Care taken, but no responsibility assumed for accidents or escapes.
Money due in all cases if mare changes hands or is parted with. Mares kept on grass at $1 per week.
